Mutual Bank staff members participate in American Cancer Society Relay for Life
Mutual Bank team raises estimated $6,000 for cancer research

WHITMAN, MIDDLEBORO, MA, ISSUED JULY 22, 2010... Staff members of Mutual Bank, a full-service bank with nine branches throughout Southeastern Massachusetts and on Cape Cod, participated in the Bridgewater, Lakeville & Middleboro Relay for Life on June 18-20, raising an estimated $6,000 for research and programs facilitated by the American Cancer Society.

The 26-member Mutual Bank Relay team was one of 46 teams participating in the fundraising event, which was held at the Bridgewater Raynham Regional High School outdoor track.

The Mutual Bank team participated in the name of a colleague who is presently recovering from cancer.

“In addition to the team, 25 other Mutual Bank staff members either contributed outright to the event or actively participated in fundraising,” said Middleboro Branch Manager Thomas Pratt, who organized the Mutual Bank team. “Most people are affected by cancer in one way or another; this year one of our own is battling the disease, so we felt it was appropriate to come together in a group effort to help make a difference.”
