

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
CONTACT: Jim Farrell, PR First, 781-681-6616, jfarrell@prfirst.com

ProEx Physical Therapy to be Honored as a Best Place to Work in the Boston Area

BOSTON AND WOBURN, MA, MAY 10, 2010.... ProEx, a physical therapist owned private practice specializing in orthopedics, spine and sports medicine, will be honored as a Best Place to Work in the Boston area at a breakfast sponsored by the Boston Business Journal on Friday, June 11, 2010 at the Seaport Hotel and World Trade Center.

The Boston Business Journal's Best Places to Work results are based on surveys conducted of employees at each company. The surveys ask a series of questions about work environment, work-life balance, job satisfaction, advancement opportunities, management compensation and benefits. This year's top ranking firms were chosen from a large pool of nominations. Categories include small, medium and large-sized businesses.

"We are honored to be selected as one of the best places to work in the Greater Boston area," said Michael J. Mulrenan PT, CEO and President of ProEx Physical Fitness. "Our core value is to be "People Focused", meaning we treat everyone, patients and employees, as people first. Our commitment to being "People Focused" has allowed us to attract the highest caliber of talent in our industry and that is what makes for a great working environment."

About ProEx Physical Therapy

ProEx Physical Therapy is the new name of Mulrenan and Stratham Physical Therapy. The practice was established in 2001 and has locations in Woburn, Springfield, Boston and newly opened Haverhill, MA; Stratham and Epping, NH; and Farmington, CT. The company maintains administrative offices in Kittery, ME. The staff of sports medicine and orthopedic physical therapists treats patients of all ages from children to high-level athletes to geriatric patients. ProEx Physical Therapy is the official Athletic Trainers to various sports organizations throughout New England. For additional information, please call 877-776-9843 or visit www.PROexPT.com