Nathan J. Rego promoted to Vice President, Financial Advisor at BayCoast Financial Services

WESTPORT, SWANSEA, MA, -- BayCoast Financial Services, a subsidiary of BayCoast Bank (<http://baycoastbank.com>) is pleased to announce the promotion of Nathan J. Rego to Vice President of BayCoast Bank and Financial Advisor, Infinex Investments, working from the firm's Main Road, Westport office.

In this role Rego will provide access to investment products and services offered through INFINEX INVESTMENTS, INC. He is responsible for investment and retirement planning in addition to wealth transfer and safe-money solutions for clients in Dartmouth, Westport, New Bedford, Fairhaven, Tiverton, Little Compton and the surrounding areas.

Prior to joining BayCoast Financial Services in 2012, Rego had most recently managed the New Bedford Loan Center at St. Anne's Credit Union. Previously, he was a senior account executive at HSBC Bank Corporation where he ranked as one of the top employees in the country from 2003 to 2005.

Rego attended the University of Massachusetts – Dartmouth and completed an extensive investment training program at Morgan Stanley Smith Barney. He is a Registered General Securities Representative, Investment Advisor Representative, (Series 7, Series 66, and Series 31) and holds both Life & Health insurance licenses in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and Florida.

Rego makes his home in Dartmouth, Massachusetts with his wife and son and is a volunteer and committee member with the Dartmouth Natural Resources Trust, a non-profit land trust that is responsible for the protection and preservation of over 5,000 acres in the town of Dartmouth. He volunteers regularly with Dartmouth Youth Athletic Association where he coaches youth baseball and basketball. Rego also participates in the “Credit for Life” interactive financial literacy program for local area high school students, a program that stresses the importance of saving early and often.

“We’re delighted to announce Nate’s promotion to VP, at BayCoast Bank and Financial Advisor with Infinex Investments at BayCoast Financial Services,” said Nicholas Christ, President and CEO of BayCoast Bank. “He has the unique ability to look at both sides of the balance sheet to create personalized financial solutions for his clients; he is an essential member of our BayCoast Financial Services team.”
